

PROGRAMME OUTCOMES – POSTGRADUATE

Programme Outcomes for M.Com.
PO 1	Domain Knowledge: Students will gain expertise to apply discipline specific knowledge to regional, national and global scenarios.
PO 2	Problem Solving: Students will be able to deduce a problem, derive inferences, test feasibility and devise solutions.
PO 3	Critical Thinking: Students will acquire the ability to critically analyse emerging trends and technology disrupting business and society and be able to speculate its implications on various stakeholders.
PO 4	Receptive to New ideas: Students will become adept at lateral thinking, become receptive to new and alternative ideas, think strategically when encountering challenges and be able to perceive an issue/challenge holistically.
PO 5	Digital literacy: Students will be able to leverage business data and technology to business and social challenges.
PO 6	Environment & Sustainability: Students will appraise the idea of sustainability, develop positive attitude towards developmental challenges and facilitate solutions.
PO 7	Research Related Skills: Students will be able to undertake independent research.
PO 8	Teamwork and Leadership Readiness: Students will internalize the concept of diversity, collaborate, and learn to lead with diverse groups and at diverse workplaces.
PO 9	Self-Directed and Lifelong learning: Students will become adept at self- learning tools and incorporate lifelong learning.
PO 10	Moral and Ethical Awareness: Students will be able to manage self in the larger professional, personal, and social life through development of strong moral and ethical behaviour.
PO 11	Interdisciplinary Perspective: Students will be able to develop interdisciplinary perspective.